

RISE UP, AMERICA, RISE UP!

I miss those tents and those occupiers who lifted my hopes upwards into the light.

Where are you people?

I can still feel your pain
and your aspirations.

I can still hear your voices
in the heat of the night.

I miss your faces, your joy,
your call for a new life.

I miss you all.

Where are you people?

For you are the hope of all the world, if only you knew.

Taken from 'A letter to an American activist', by Mohammed Mesbahi.